HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

Proceedings of Wednesday and Thursday Afternoon—Business Done.

A Scene Between Honest John and the Gentleman from Westminster.

WEDNESDAY, March 5th.

CATTLE RANGES.

Mr. Semlin in moving the second reading of the Cattle Ranges Act, said that it is well known to stock men that cattle will not willingly feed over lands on which sheep are pastured. The residents of some sections of the upper country, whose chief property is in cattle, have found great inconvenience, annoyance and loss by sheep drovers running their flocks over the winter cattle ranges. In 1879 the grievance was represented to the then government and legislation took place for the purpose of enabling the stock growers to protect themselves. This legislation is limited in its provisions to one polling division. This bill that he was introducing is to extend the operation of this act so as to allow two-thirds of the resident land owners to do what the principal bill enables two-thirds of the resident land owners of one polling division to do.

Bill reported complete with amendments, read a third time and passed.

THAT RULING.

The standing rules and orders were suspended to enable Mr. Martin, chairman of the private bills committee, to introduce the following resolution: That the practice which has obtained in this House since Confederation, with respect to parties appearing before the private bills committee in support of or against any private bill, shall be allowed to prevail during this session. Carried.

MISCHIEVOUS ANIMALS.

On motion to adopt the report on the Mischievous Animals Act Mr. Haslam moved a slight amendment. Bill finally read a third time and passed.

RETURNS.

The Hon. Provincial Secretary brought down a supplementary statement of the names and places of residence of the collectors of revenue paid by commission, rate of same, and date of authority therefor.

The Hon. Finance Minister presented a list of remissions of assessed taxes for the year.

ELECTRICAL BILLS.

The Vancouver Street Railway and Electric Companies bill was read a third time and passed.

ELECTRICITY AND CHINESE.

The New Westminster Street Railway bill was taken up in committee of the whole. Mr. Cunningham moved the insertion of an anti-Chinese clause, which he explained was to prevent any clashing between this company and the city. If the company employed Chinese on the streets, then the by laws of the city prohibited it, it was likely to cause trouble and perhaps expensive lawsuits.

Mr. Martin produced a copy of the resolution passed at the meeting at New Westminster on Saturday night, which met at the call of Mr. Cunningham. The resolution required the representative to use his influence to have anti-Chinese clauses inserted in all public or private bills coming before the House.

Mr. Cunningham had left the room.

Mr. Martin—I hope the honorable gentleman is not going away to prevent himself hearing what I say.

Mr. Cunningham—(after he had returned to his seat)—I am surprised that any honorable gentleman should produce a resolution in this House which was voted down five to one. I did not go away to avoid the honorable gentleman's remarks, but to get a copy of the paper with a report of the meeting. It is unfair, it is unjust to quote that resolution.

Mr. Martin—It is a public document and I have a perfect right to use it.

Mr. Cunningham—But it is false and if he (the member for Yale) will wait till I get my papers I will prove it. That resolution was introduced to kill the other one.

Mr. Croft, to fill in time, argued that anti-Chinese clauses should not be inserted in all bills.

Mr. Cunningham, returning to his seat, read the amended resolution, which he showed clearly had been passed at the meeting. He read from the Columbian newspaper.

Mr. Mason asked the introducer of the bill if he did so at the request of the promoters of the bill.

Mr. Cunningham—I can only state that the promoters of this bill favored the insertion of such clauses at the public meeting. One of the promoters stated that he did not care if a hundred and one anti-Chinese clauses were inserted.

Hon. Mr. Robson—Provided all were treated alike.

Hon. Mr. Robson said that was all very well but all bills were not treated the same. There were several bills before the House with no Chinese clauses in them and he believed there was no intention that there should be any. That was not fair. The trouble was to apply this great principle universally, for people are not loyal on this question. As soon as a law of this kind commenced to pinch, those who were loudest in favor of anti-Chinese laws were the first to squeal. Proceeding the honorable gentleman scored the city of New Westminster for having burned him in effigy for being true to his principles as an anti-Chinese advocate. He had lost a good deal of his ardor on the Chinese question since he was burnt in effigy (laughter) and his position now was that we should not insert these clauses in one bill unless we were prepared to insert them in all. He had not changed his views in the abstract but at the present juncture great care should be taken not to imperil progress by persisting in these clauses.

Mr. Mason thought this question had been settled but he found now the anti-Chinese clause bobbing up screwly again in several bills. He would ask the introducer of this bill to withdraw the clause and if he would not do so, he (Mr. M.) would ask the house to sit down on this kind of contemptible legislation which he characterized as unprincipled, un-British and un-Christian.

Hon. Mr. Beaven explained the position had always taken on the Chinese question. The people of New West minster city carried on their public works with distinct provisions that no Chinese should be employed on them and the honorable member for New Westminster properly asked that the same thing should apply to their street railway.

Mr. Cunningham repeated what he had said before, that the affair burning at Westminster was the act and expression of a mob. Proceeding he denounced Chinese as undesirable, immoral, heathen.

Mr. Martin—What do you employ them for? they work for you.

Mr. Cunningham—The worst feature of the Chinese is that they degrade labor. How often you hear a young fellow say to-day "that is only Chinaman's work," good, respectable honest work.

Mr. Martin—I will ask that honorable gentleman does he employ Chinamen? Well, he need not answer unless he likes.

Mr. Cunningham—Mr. Chairman—

Mr. Martin—You needn't answer, I know you do.

Chairman—Chair, chair.

Mr. Martin—I claim that to hire who you like and pay for the work done is not degrading.

Mr. Cunningham—I said Chinese labor degraded white labor not the employer.

Mr. Smith observed that there was no more gambling among Chinese than among whites if that was the immorality referred to. He claimed the right of every man to hire who he liked.

A vote being taken on the clause after a great deal of hesitation, Messrs. Beaven, Duck, Davie and Cunningham held up their hands for it. Those who voted against it were Messrs. Robson, Pooley, Turner, Vernon, Martin, Croft, Anderson, Orr, Mason, Nason, Smith, Baker.

Mr. Cunningham moved that the committee rise and report progress, and ask leave to sit again.

The President of the Council (Mr. Pooley) asked (sharply) if the object of the honorable gentleman was to kill the bill.

Mr. Cunningham replied that it was not; that a clause had just been handed him by one of the aldermen of New Westminster to be inserted at the request of the mayor.

Mr. Pooley—Well, the mayor of New Westminster is not going to control this House.

Mr. Duck—I take it that the honorable gentleman has a perfect right to make the motion if he wishes so.

Hon. Mr. Beaven—Hear, hear.

Hon. Mr. Pooley called for a show of hands as to whether the committee should rise and report progress. On the vote being taken the motion was carried.

MUNICIPAL.

On motion to adopt the report on the Municipal Amendment bill, Mr. Beaven moved an amendment empowering the city of Victoria to extend its limits one mile instead of half a mile as provided in the act of last year.

Mr. Semlin said the principle he had contended against a few days ago, of giving a majority of lots the power to secure incorporation or to defeat it should be applied to this case if it was so desirable as some honorable members contended the other day.

After a good deal of discussion on the subject the matter was laid over.

After several amendments had been made the consideration of the report was further adjourned.

REGISTRATION.

Mr. Duck moved the second reading of his births, deaths and marriages bill. The mover explained that an Act had been passed in 1872 requiring births, deaths and marriages to be registered, but that only applied to such as were subsequent to that date. The object of this bill was to provide for the registration of those events before that date. Bill read a second time.

ADVANCED A STAGE.

The British Milling & Trading Company's bill was reported from committee complete with amendments.

RETURNS.

The Attorney-General brought down complete returns of correspondence in connection with the consolidation of the statutes.

The Pacific Coast Fire Insurance Bill passed its second reading.

House adjourned at 5:40 till 2 p.m. on Wednesday.

NOTICES OF MOTION.

By Mr. Duck—To move that a select committee be appointed to consider the evidence adduced before a select committee of 1888 appointed to enquire into the application of Donald MacKenzie to preempt section 98, Esquimalt district and the report upon the same; said committee to consist of Messrs. Semlin, Orr, Martin, Anderson and Allen.

By Mr. Beaven—To move that a respectful address be presented to His Honor the Lieut.-Governor requesting him to cause to be sent down to the House copies of all orders in council received or approved respecting the proposed railway known as the Spokane Falls and Northern railway, or the B. C. Southern railway, together with all correspondence and telegrams received or sent by the government or any of its members upon the same subjects.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6.

Mr Speaker took the chair at 2 p.m. Prayer by the Ven. Archdeacon Scriven.

REPORTS.

The standing committee on railways reported the preamble approved in the case of a bill to incorporate the Asheroft and Cariboo railway.

The committee on standing orders and privs a bills reported the preamble approved in the case of the Fraser Gravel Gold Mining Company.

The chairman of the committee (Mr. Martin) offered a minority report, stating that the petition for the above bill was not in order, but the petition for the bill which was not in order was taken up first. Reports read and ordered printed.

ASSIGNMENTS.

Hon. Mr. Turner moved the second reading of a bill relating to assignments for the benefit of creditors. He explained that it was simple in its provisions and has been endorsed by the Board of Trade. Its object was to enable a debtor in difficulties to make an equitable distribution of his assets among his creditors.

Bill read a second time.

PETITION.

The petition of the city of Vancouver in opposition to the water works bill was read and received.

The petition of Hammersley and Teague in opposition to a private bill applied for by E. E. Olcott in regard to a mining claim at Yale was received and ordered to be printed.

A petition from James Morrison (reland purchased by him at tax sale) was received and ruled out of order.

COULDN'T SALUTE.

A Senator Tells a Bit of a Story of Local Interest.

Senator Allen, of the State of Washington, presented a unique memorial to the United States Senate from Port Townsend, Wash., on the question of defenses for Puget Sound. It represents that there is no protection of the commercial interests of that section of the country, and when British ships came within hailing distance on a recent occasion there was not even a piece of ordnance with which to answer the salute from Her Majesty's guns. The memorial dwells on the fact that England has established headquarters for its Northern Pacific squadron at Esquimalt, B. C., in a position so near to Port Townsend that its works can be seen from Point Wilson, and the guns of the vessels, as they indulge in target practice, can be heard at Port Townsend, where the concussion jars the houses to a considerable extent. For these reasons the request is made that works of defense be located at Point Wilson, Admiralty Head and Marrow Stone Point, as recommended by General Miles in his late report.

GREAT LIBERAL VICTORY.

Saint Pancras Electing Conservatives Stricken With Dismay.

London, March 5—The result of the election in the north division of Saint Pancras has stricken the Conservatives with dismay, for in the success of the Gladstonians upon the issue of the acceptance of the Parnell commission's report as a vindication of the Parnellites, the Tories see "the hand writing on the wall," warning them of their inevitable overthrow at the next general elections. So well seated is the fear that the government will now concentrate its energies in an effort to stave off anything calculated to force a dissolution, in the hope that chance may bring up something that will swerve popular opinion from the track upon which it is now running. Should the government majority on Mr. Smith's motion fall below that shown by the vote on Parnell's amendment, however, it is difficult to see how an appeal to the country can be long averted. Before the present debate ends it is expected that Mr. Parnell, Mr. Morley, Sir Wm. Harcourt and other leaders will speak.

PERSONAL.

Items Telling of the Movements of Well Known Persons.

R. M. Bereton, capitalist, has left for San Francisco.

Mrs. D. A. McTavish will be a passenger for the south on the next direct steamer sailing from here, which is the City of Puebla on Monday next.

A Good Idea.

To-day Chas. Green & Co. have put a limited number of lots on the market in our sister city Port Angeles on the instalment plan. This property is well situated and all lots will be sold without reservation at one hundred dollars each. Terms five dollars down and ten dollars per month. Everything tends towards a bright future for the city of the angels and this is a good chance to make a small investment.

BISMARCK'S RETIREMENT.

It is Only a Matter of a Short Time—An Onerous Position.

New York, March 6.—The Mail and Express' Berlin cable says the retirement of Bismarck as chancellor within a short time is now said to be definitely settled upon. The matter has been decided but a great difficulty arises in relation to the future organization of the chancellorship. It is not alone a question of the ability of a man to replace the chancellor, but of the life long familiarity with the tremendous questions of state, the innumerable threads of which it is not hardly possible for any man to grasp. The problem is considerably complicated by the reserved rights possessed by Bavaria, Saxony and other states, all jealous of their independence, and which may make considerable trouble when Bismarck shall have removed his strong right hand from the government. Bismarck has promised to remain at the post till this matter is settled. The means adopted will probably be the substitution of a number of independent ministers in place of the present imperial chancellorship.

CANADIAN DISPATCHES.

News of Our Own Country in Brief Form.

A dispatch from Kingston, Ontario says: Rudolph Degenbery, of Pacanawa about 60 years old, was arrested for committing a grave outrage upon his young female pupils. He was rescued at his home and asked leave to get ready for his journey to jail. He went upstairs and there took a heavy dose of strychine. While on his way to Pembroke in a cutter he had many spasms. He pathetically appealed not to be taken to jail, and immediately after stiffened and died.

A telegram was received by the Free Press this morning from Carberry, stating that McDuff, suspected murderer of Wilson Holton, of East Tilbury, Essex County, Ont., had been arrested there. Benjamin McMahon was tried and found guilty of the murder and sentenced to hang at Chatham, last month, but was afterwards reprieved. McDuff's arrest will probably clear up the mystery.

Alex Shields and Wm. Hinde, young farmers, living near Edmonton, Ont, were fooling with a revolver when Hinde said playfully "Let's fight a duel," levelled his pistol at Shields and snapped the trigger, Shields doing likewise. Shields' firearm proved to be loaded, however, and the bullet was lodged in Hinde's chest, just above the heart. He will probably die.

Wm. Arnot, of Belville, charged with the murder of Hanna Poole, on February 18th, was arrested last night in the cellar of the house of Francis Kiert, a farmer of Thurlow township, where he was hiding.

The second large party of Manitoba and Pacific coast colonists left the Union Station, Toronto, by the Canadian Pacific railway last night. There were 132 persons and 23 cars of stock.

THE CAPITAL.

Sir Fred and Brenner's Furs to be Enquired Into.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Ottawa, March 6—There is much excitement here over the proclamation issued yesterday by President Harrison regarding the restriction as to the Behring Sea fisheries. Members of parliament condemn the proclamation and one of them said to-day: "Just at this time when negotiations are going on for a peaceful settlement of the matter, the issue of the proclamation looks like a slap in the face of Canada. No wonder that public indignation is aroused. I confess that the Canadian government could not do anything practicable in the matter. They thoroughly deserve censure for their lukewarmness throughout on this question of the Behring Sea, which is one of the most vital importance to Canada."

Ottawa, March 6.—In the House this afternoon Sir John Thompson introduced his bill transferring the rights of administering fore shores and harbors of lakes and rivers in the provinces. This has been the subject of much legislation in the past between the Dominion and provinces.

It was agreed by Sir John Macdonald this afternoon that a select committee will be appointed to enquire into the charges against Sir Fred Middleton regarding Brenner's furs.

Coming North.

San Francisco, March 6.—The steamer Umatilla sailed this morning with the following passengers for Victoria: F J Dawley, W W Von Alman, T McCauley, G Wade, L E Williams, S S Smith, Miss Christie, M J Heney, T Fevols, F P Such, G G Geisler, R H McGinnis, E L Pangborn and wife, Mrs Deher and daughter.

The steamer City of Topeka left for Port Townsend this morning, and will hereafter ply between Puget Sound and Alaska ports.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Howlett desires to acknowledge the receipt of $200, the proceeds of a concert held on the 15th of February, 1890, for her benefit, and to express her heartfelt thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who so kindly took part in it; also to Rev. Father Van Nevel and members of the Catholic Young Men's Institute, the Sir William Wallace and Orange societies, to the editors of the daily Colonist and Times for advertising, Mr. Munro Miller for kindly printing tickets and to Mr. Austin and the management of the Victoria Theatre for the use thereof.

Steamer Notes.

The Olympian will be withdrawn from the Sound-Victoria route at once to be thoroughly overhauled both inside and outside in view of competition with the City of Kingston. The Sehome will take her place till the repairs are effected, which will occupy about two weeks.

Capt. Radlin, of the Islander, took a much needed lay off for one trip this week, and Capt. John Irving went in command.

The rumor that the steamer San Rafael was coming north is entirely without foundation. She will still continue to ply on San Francisco bay and has recently been refitted at great expense.

AN EDUCATIONAL REVIEW.

When THE TIMES first called public attention to the administration of the Educational Department, it did so because it saw that the Department was being gradually transformed into a political machine, and that its officials, whenever they desired to make any changes in the management of the schools, appeared to rely not on the fidelity and co-operation of the teachers affected, but rather on the powerful backing of the Ministry and the blind adherence of its supporters in the legislature. THE TIMES moreover felt that the attitude of the Department towards the teachers generally was not indicative of mutual confidence, and could not therefore but prove inimical to the educational interests of the province. And we are forced to admit that the manner in which our criticisms were received and commented on by the organ of the government in this city did not in the slightest degree diminish the strength of our conviction. In too many cases it made excess of abuse do duty for feebleness of argument, and instead of candidly admitting the existence of grievances and supporting THE TIMES in its efforts to remove them, its highest aim appeared to be to satisfy itself that these grievances had existed long before, and owed their origin to the perversity or stupidity of political opponents of the present administration. Thus the Colonist itself unwittingly substantiated the first charge made by THE TIMES, that politics ruled the Department, for the tenor of its reply made it at once clear that all remedial measures must be regarded from a party standpoint, and cannot therefore be advocated on their intrinsic merits. Enough has been said and written on the subject to bring into prominence the more glaring anomalies of the Department and, though we have still to consider matters that do not concern the province as a whole, it may be as well at this stage to recapitulate the salient features of the administration of the Department to which THE TIMES has taken strong objection.

At the outset we deplored the fact that our system of education, excellent in many respects, should be brought within the pale of politics and subjected to the demoralizing influences and uncertainties of parties and of party interests. And in support of the assertion that this was the case we pointed to certain facts which the Colonist entirely ignored. We showed that within the last few years the consideration of the minutest details of school work—as, for instance, how to note the progress of each pupil in each subject—was transferred from the educational office to the legislature through the government and that the department, backed by the government, established a sort of inquisitorial system which implied that the teachers had no conscience and no higher sense of duty than was inspired by the terrors of the law. To this the Colonist made no answer. We showed that a certain school teacher, whose name we made no attempt to conceal, actively canvassed the electorate of Comox in the interests of the government candidate and thereby earned the gratitude of a minister who had previously taken no pains to conceal the intensity of his dislike for him To this the Colonist made no answer We showed that this same teacher more than once introduced politics into the schools and sought, at the price of professional courtesy, to relieve the government of the embarrassment caused by the blunders of the education office. On this the Colonist was modestly dumb. We showed, and appealed in proof to the records of the education office, that the department dictated to the trustees of Wellington and of North Cedar in regard to the appointment of teachers, thus encroaching upon the legitimate, and indeed the only functions of school trustees. To this the Colonist made no answer. We showed that English school, Lulu Island, was illegally closed, despite the strong protest of the trustees, for the simple reason that the teacher was obnoxious to the Department; and further that it was opened as soon as the government had resolved to get rid of the teacher by cancelling his certificate. To this the Colonist made no answer. We showed that the undue influence of the Department with the Victoria trustees had become a matter of public notoriety and that, in the case of a recent appointment, it made itself felt in a manner that would convince the most skeptical that it was not sound policy for a teacher to have the courage of his or her convictions, at least on educational questions. We showed that a teacher of excellent moral character and recognized ability was, in a manner which would have done credit to the Star Chamber, deprived of his certificate because he was too conscientious to certify to a falsehood and because his refusal to humble himself in the dust before the "Minister of Education" was construed as "gross insolence." We further showed that while the weakness of the education office could excite only ridicule, yet a knowledge of the vital connection between it and the government had served to freeze the indignation of teachers and make them afraid, even in conventions, to express their opinion on matters touching the honor and the interests of their profession. To all of these the Colonist made no reply.

But equally important is the consideration of the burdens yearly imposed on the vast majority of teachers. We pointed out that they were in a condition of dependance compared with which it were bliss to be hewers of wood and drawers of water. Teachers faithful, competent, energetic have scarcely escaped the toils of one examination when they must needs bend their energies to the preparation for another. Teachers from the older provinces, who anticipated with feelings of pleasure the privilege of imparting a knowledge of the three R's to the youth of British Columbia, learn with dismay that the erudite educationists of this province do not consider an ordinary common-sense education sufficient for a teacher, but require him to have a solid acquaintance with a number of abstruse subjects like chemistry or zoology or astronomy or natural philosophy, which he is not required to teach. And when we pointed out that the tendency of such exactions was to drive teachers out of the profession and increase the number of those holding temporary certificates, the Colonist at last rose to the dignity of a reply and assured us in tones that reverberated through the length and breadth of James Bay that the lady teachers were getting married in platoons and this sufficiently accounted for the large number of temporary certificates issued.

ROBSON, CUNNINGHAM AND CHINESE.

Mr. CUNNINGHAM'S anti Chinese employment clause, which he proposed to tack on to the New Westminster electric street railway bill, developed a bit of argument which if not very instructive was at least amusing. The mercurial MARTIN "jumped on" to the statesman from New Westminster with both feet, and wound up with the declaration that if the Chinese were to be barred employment in the case in question, the rule should be made to apply to all other cases. Mr. MARTIN in this instance was right. It would not be fair to prohibit the employment of Chinese by the Electric Car Company of New Westminster and yet make an exception in other classes of public works. But the most interesting declaration that was made during the debate came from the Hon. JOHN ROBSON. That gentleman, in the course of his remarks, declared that in "the abstract" (we had rather he had said in the concrete) he regarded the presence of the Chinese on this coast a detriment to its best interests. This ingenuous declaration of the Premier's surprised us. We had not expected so unequivocal a disavowal from his lips of partiality to the Chinese scourge. This confession puts the Premier, so far as the Chinese are concerned, in accord with THE TIMES, and if he could only bring himself to disavow with equal vigor section nine of the school act, the Colonist would be compelled to change its coat or find itself in opposition to its mentor and master. It would be strange, amazingly funny if the whirligig of time with the political contingencies thereto, should compel the Premier to shift his position and leave our dear old Government street contemporary in the lurch. Stranger things than these have happened. It is not likely, however, that Sir JOHN ROBSON, beg pardon, the Hon. JOHN ROBSON, would be so cruel as to let our contemporary drop with a dull thud. He would warn it in time to trim its sails to meet the changed political breezes. That paper has stood by him too faithfully, swore by him too blindly, stultified itself for him too palpably, to be discarded on the instant and without remorse. "Honest JOHN," barring his abstract abhorrence of the Chinese, is as he always was. Section nine guarantees him the "everlasting cinch" on Mr. MUIR, and so long as the latter remains in the province the former will insist on the status quo. To resume our subject, then, we wish to state that the Premier's remarks regarding the employment of Chinese by the corporation of New Westminster and that district generally were sensible and to the point. The honorable gentleman stated as a matter of fact, that the employment of Chinese with the district in question was largely a matter of pocket. When the citizens of that delectable locality could employ Chinese to advantage they howled for that kind of labor; but when they could not, the burden of their howl was just the other way. When New Westminster had no use for Chinese labor it was a question of morals not to have the heathen around. When, however, New Westminster had a wagon road to build and could build it with Chinese fifty per cent. cheaper than could be done by the employment of white men, morals gave way to the financial aspects of the case. And thus it is in regard to Chinese cheap labor. The whole question really hinges on dollars and cents. Just so soon as the palm begins to itch morals and white labor must take a back seat. This, then, being the state of the case what should be done to protect the wage earners? Clearly, if the cupidity of man is such that they will not be fair to their kind, will in the interest of their pockets solely, grind their brethren into powder, the law should be invoked to prevent the employment of alien labor on all varieties of public works. There is a higher law than the so called legal "constitutional" rights of citizens. When citizens make use of their "constitutional rights to degrade native labor, moral law comes into play, the time has come for cupidity to take a back seat. All questions of constitutionality pale before the moral right of the native wage earner's demand that he shall be given employment in preference to aliens, and at a wage rate commensurate with his necessities. Constitutional law, as well as moral law, is intended to subserve the interests of native labor as well as native capital, and so the House in passing on questions of wage earners cannot go far astray when they elect to bar the employment of the Chinese on all classes of public works.

THE PROPOSED RAILWAY ACT.

The Colonist's rejoinder to THE TIMES strictures on sub section nine of the Railway Act is plainly indicative of the state of mind of the little coterie who sit at the right of the Speaker. Perhaps the use of the word coterie is an exaggeration, for it is not recorded that either the Premier or the Minister of Finance have spoken in the matter, while if recollection serves us right the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works has spoken in favor of an amendment to the sub section in question. That, however, the Attorney General would pass the clause as it stands, and that the President of the Council is, without a doubt of the same mind, is evident from their frequent consultations. They being lawyers are fully cognizant of the tremendous leverage the clause would give to railways. It is possible, therefore, that only a duet, instead of a coterie, are anxious to pass the clause, although we shall note closely how the Premier and Minister of Finance vote when the clause comes up for final passage. The Colonist endeavors to justify the clause by quoting Ontario law and OLIVER MOWAT. If Ontario law and OLIVER MOWAT give railways the "cinch" on the public, it is no argument in favor of its repetition in British Columbia. The Colonist ought to know better than to attempt to justify the clause by quoting precedent. As we understand it the object of legislation is to improve on precedent. The complaints of land owners who have had to grant rights of way to railways at ruinous sacrifices to themselves are chronic throughout the length and breadth of this continent in both Canada and the United States. Since railway corporations have begun to influence legislatures, to elect, in fact, their own men to legislatures, the tenor of all legislation affecting railways has been in their favor as against the public. The specious cry has gone up, we must have railways at any cost. But this is too well understood to require comment. What we wish to point out is, that, however much property may be enhanced by the advent of a railway in its neighborhood, in most instances the land through which the railway passes in a great many instances is so damaged that the question of increased valuation does not enter into the case at all. And especially is this true of farming lands in mountainous countries, which generally lay in low narrow strips. Owing to the conformation of the valley to the trend of the stream which is generally present, or to some other topographical feature the railway may so pass through A's farm as not to damage it, or at the most very inconsequentially. B's farm, however, may be pierced from end to end and a portion of his choicest land lost to him. A's farm has increased in value, but B's farm has been ruined, and yet, according to sub-section nine the arbitrators, if so disposed, may set off B's damages by the increased value of A's property. They need not take into consideration that B's farm has been slaughtered. All they need to do is to take a survey of what ground he has left, pronounce it good and valuable, worth as much as A's land, and award damages accordingly. The Colonist should be able to see this, and should have the moral courage to oppose the clause.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The proposed amendment to the Constitution Act, by which the government intend to increase the representation and legislate themselves into power again for another four years, is still in the form of a protoplasm in the brain of the Premier. It is to be hoped it will develop with greater rapidity than it has since the idea was first conceived, so that the House and country may be apprised of the character of the contemplated change one or two days before they are required to pass an opinion upon it.

Local Industry.

It is now over four years since the first Goodwin piano was made and sold in British Columbia. In the factory there are twenty-five either finished or in course of construction, and as many more have been sold and distributed about the province, giving entire satisfaction to their purchasers, who have signified the same by written testimony, which the makers are about to publish. A nail at the factory will not only convince intending buyers that a first-class piano can be made at home, but also obtained for much less than its imported equal.

MR. GOODWIN—Dear Sir: The piano I have in your make pleases me very much; indeed, it has a very sweet tone, is light for the touch, and does not cause me any fatigue when practising. I remain, yours truly, MRS. D. HARRIS.

MR. GOODWIN—Dear Sir: Having been repeatedly asked by interested parties my opinion of your pianos, I herewith state that I consider the instruments made by you, for touch, tone and durability, superior to any made in the Dominion of Canada, and equal to any made in the United states, not excepting those of the most celebrated makers. Yours most respectfully,

E. CAGWELL,
President Hemme & Long Piano Co.,
San Francisco, California.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Business of Interest and Importance Discussed.

The regular meeting of the city council was held last evening. Present, Mayor Grant and a full board.

The minutes of last regular meeting and a special meeting were read and adopted.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Chas. Ireland, requesting that Cobourg street be cleared of obstructions and travelled. Received and referred to the committee for report.

From J. Turner, requesting permission to lay a drain along Douglas street. Referred to street committee.

From Thos. W. Pierce, Pioneer street, asking permission to put out shade trees in front of his residence. Referred to street committee.

From W. W. Northcott, recommending that the city solicitor be requested to draw up clauses making certain necessary changes to the municipal act and deliver them to the Hon. Robt. Beaven for introduction into the legislature. A motion to the effect that the foregoing be carried out and that the other city members be requested to support the legislation was carried.

FIRE REPORT.

Chief Engineer Deasy reported nine alarms of fire last month, the loss being $6,000, covered by insurance; also concerning certain resignations and appointments to fill vacancies. Referred to fire wardens.

From Jas Britton, asking permission to erect a tent on the grounds in front of the public school. The clerk was instructed to inform the applicant that the council is not in a position to grant the request, having no control over that street.

From John Jessop, secretary of the Methodist Trustee Board, enquiring if the large body of water flowing through the Johnson street ravine could not be diverted to the Johnson street sewer.

His Worship—Water cannot be stopped going through there, but sewerage can. I think there is a mistake.

Referred to street committee.

From R. Williams & Jr., 95 and 97 Johnson street, asking for a better sidewalk in front of their premises. Referred to street committee to report.

BOARD BILL.

From R. E. John, warden, provincial jail, such sing account for $89 90 for keep of city prisoners for month of February. Referred to finance committee to be paid if found correct.

From W. K. Bull, returning officer, reporting the result of ratepayers' vote on bocus by-laws.

Ald. Harrison complained that Mr. Mat hews, as istant to the city surveyor, had acted as one of the deputy returning officers. Report received.

From J. Andrews, enclosing testimonials in regard to the chemical fire engine.

From Jas. Angus, asking for permission to cut a drain connecting Belcher and Moss streets. Referred to committee.

From Eberts & Taylor, stating that the Attorney-General would be glad to meet a committee of the council to consider the keep of the city prisoners at the provincial jail. Referred to police committee.

From J. P. Burgess and others, asking that Albert street be extended to Burgess. Referred to street committee.

ACCOUNTS

For the month of February, amounting to $3,491, were referred to finance committee.

BY-LAWS.

On motion, the City Hall addition and cemetery loan by-laws were read a second time.

VELOCITY.

Ald. Smith said the street cars ran at a considerable velocity through the the streets. He would like to know if the same by-law applied to the cars as to other vehicles. The cars, he noticed, also ran at a rapid speed on to James Bay bridge, and the street committee should see that the twisters are screwed up tight.

His Worship turned up the law and found that the cars were allowed to run at the rate of ten miles an hour. He thought it would be a good idea for the street committee to confer with the management and request it to run a little slower on portions of the streets and over the James Bay bridge. Speed over a trestle greatly added to the strain on it.

SEWERS.

Ald. Harrison moved the first reading of a by-law to regulate sewers in private houses.

POLICE.

The police committee recommended the placing of gas fixtures in the police station.

SEWERAGE.

An enlarged committee reported, recommending that advertisements be placed in the Victoria papers, the Toronto Mail and Portland Oregonian offering a bonus of $2000 up to May 1st, 1890, for the best plans of a separate system of sewerage for Victoria. Report adopted.

A LADY INSULTED.

Ald. Wilson said a very respectable lady of this city had called on him this evening and complained that she had been insulted on the street by a hackman. This was not the first complaint. Some of the hackmen were as respectable as any class of men in the city, but but as much could not be said of others, and in future he would go a step further than had been done before, when they were ordered to keep their seats; he would recommend that they be removed from Government street. The lady was in deep mourning and closely veiled when one of the hackmen came up and made a remark to her.

Ald. Vigelius said there were black sheep in every flock. It would be hard for 40 or 50 men to have to suffer for the fault of one.

The matter was referred to the police committee.

EXPROPRIATION.

Ald. Holland moved that in the opinion of the council, the Municipalities Act should be amended to enable the board to expropriate land for a drill shed, public library, fire department and other purposes. Motion carried.

GARBAGE.

Ald. McKillican said something had to be done in the matter of removing the garbage of the city. The only alternative he could suggest was to secure a large steam scow to carry refuse to sea and dump it in the Straits. The city had to bear some action.

Ald. Harrison could not see where the money was to come from.

The question of removal of garbage was referred to the sanitary committee to report.

EXPENDITURE.

Ald. Vigelius gave notice that he would amend the revenue and expenditure by-law, so that the proper transfer on city hall account should be made.

REPORTS.

Ald. Vigelius moved that a copy of the annual report be mailed to each ratepayer of the city. Carried.

Council adjourned at 10:30.

Coal News.

Coal at Vancouver has been raised to $9 per ton while in Victoria it remains at the same old price. The Central Coal Yard and the Rock Bay Coal Yard have been merged into one and hereafter will be carried on under the name of the Central Coal Yard. Orders to be left at 90½ Government street.

Six Years' Suffering.

I was troubled with dyspepsia for six years. Four years ago I got a bottle of B. B. B. from your agent, Mr. John Pearce, of Parry Harbor, which I considered completely cured me. A return of the symptoms about five weeks ago, however, was promptly removed by using only part of another bottle, and I feel as well as ever I did in my life. MARY E. DOWLING, Parry Harbor, Ont.

DAUGHTERS OF EVE.

Miss Gerster thinks that she will fully recover her voice.

Mme. Carnot is the best dressed French woman in France.

Rose Coghlan spends an hour each evening rubbing up her face for the play.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton, at 74, has much interested in this world as ever.

Mrs. Hamilton Douglas, of Atlanta, is the only woman lawyer in Georgia.

Mrs. Matthew Arnold will receive a pension from Queen Victoria.

Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland will remain in Washington until the latter part of June.

Mrs. Endicott denies that her daughter is engaged to Joseph Chamberlain.

Miss Annie H. Whitney, of Lancaster, Mass., is the most successful breeder of rastiffs in this country.

Amelia Rives is bewilderingly handsome, smokes cigarettes, indulges in long walks, and is an expert equestrienne.

The wife of M. Floquet, the premier of France, is a tall, handsome woman of diplomatic talent and charming manners. Mme. Jules Ferry is her niece.

Miss Flora West, daughter of Minister West, is slight and fair and only just 21. She is decidedly a pretty woman. Her betrothed, Mr. Gabriel Sloanson, is short and thin, very dark, 28 years of age, rich and a brother of the French general.

Mrs. Lionel Tennyson, widow of the laureate's second son, is to marry Mr. Augustine Birrell, the author of "Obiter Dicta" and other works. Mrs. Tennyson is the daughter of Mr. Frederick Locker Lampson, and a niece of the late Lady Augusta Stanley, wife of the celebrated Dean of Westminster.

Elizabeth of Roumania is 45 years of age, and the most talented woman of royal rank in the world. The queen, or as she is known in literature, "Carmen Sylva," begins her literary work at 5 in the morning. She rises without disturbing her husband or even her maid; dresses without assistance, and lighting a lamp is soon busy with her pen.

Electric Light for Theatres.

It is more than likely that before long the use of gas in theatres will be entirely banished so far as Paris is concerned. The fire at the Opera Comique has taught the authorities a lesson which they have been quick and willing to learn and apply. A commission is now sitting, balancing the comparative advantages of gas and electricity, and the latter is sending the former sky high. The commission a few days ago visited the electric laboratory at Grenelle, where a competent lecturer told them a great deal that was surprising and showed them some extraordinary experiments. All sorts of inflammable materials, silk, calico, canvas, chips of wood and edges of old scenery were brought in contact with the light and showed no tendency to catch fire. There were conditions, indeed, in which flame could be communicated, but it was difficult to produce them. The members of the commission were deeply impressed, and the era of gas in theatres seems doomed.—New York Press.

The Brass Mule Cure.

A traveler, recently returned from Pekin, tells us that he saw a method of cure which may be new to some of our readers. In a temple outside one of the city gates is to be found a brass mule of life size, supposed to have wonderful healing properties. Patients suffering from every imaginable disease seek this temple to obtain a cure. The method pursued is as follows: Supposing you suffer from sciatica, you go with all speed to this famous temple, and, having discovered the particular part of the brass mule corresponding to the painful region of your own body, you must rub the animal a certain number of times and then with the same hand shampoo your own disabled member, and then—well, then the pain goes.

The special feature of this method of cure is its delightful simplicity. Is your tooth aching? Just scrub the mule's teeth and afterward your own, and voila! the cure is complete. Have you an ulcer of the cornea? Pass the tips of your fingers to and fro over the particular eyeball of the mule, and then with well regulated pressure rub repeatedly the afflicted eye. The mule has unhappily lost his sight during the many years he has been engaged in his benevolent work, the eyeballs, we are told, having been gradually worn away, as the result of constant friction, until now you have only the empty orbits to operate upon.

The animal is patched in all directions with fresh pieces of brass put on to cover holes produced by the constant friction of eager patients, and a new, perfectly whole mule stands ready at hand awaiting the day when his old colleague, having fallen to pieces in the service, shall give him an opportunity of likewise benefiting posterity.—North China Medical Journal.

Quail Preserves.

The day is not far distant when quails will be preserved in every state in the Union, and the privilege to shoot them over a given territory will be paid for in good sums. Indeed, there are already established in this country quite a number of preserves where the right to shoot is purchased. At present there is no great necessity for preserves, as the shooting is almost unlimited without it. Still there are number of places where thousands of acres are let to clubs, and these furnish a man to patrol the grounds occasionally, provide food, and in bad weather suitable shelter for the birds. The birds breed so rapidly and prosper so well under good treatment that the fashion for quail preserves is taking a firm hold, and in time will become quite general.—Chicago Times.

A Prudent Courtier.

Frederick the Great, of Prussia, who had a violent temper, was in the habit of playing at dice with one of his adjutants, using a cup and two dice of solid silver.

One day Frederick complained that the game was rather dull when there was not money at stake, and proposed that they throw for a penny a throw.

"Not much," replied the adjutant, who was a plain spoken sort of a man, "I think we had better not risk any money. As it is now, without any monetary inducements, when your majesty loses you throw the cup and dice at me. What will become of me if there should be money on the game and your majesty should lose?"—Texas Siftings.

"Pour Le Roi De Prusse."

In the beginning of the Eighteenth century the now so powerful German empire was nothing more than the little kingdom of Prussia, having just dropped its title of Duchy of Brandenburg. The country was very poor and the military discipline very hard. Frederick Wilhelm I was very harsh, cross and stingy, and did not even know, perhaps, what it was to make a present. And his reputation was so well grounded and so widely spread that it became a byword to say that a man had worked for the king of Prussia when he had done some unprofitable job.—Notes and Queries.

Carpet Bugs.

Some Augusta housekeepers think they have discovered the origin of the buffalo bug so far as that city is concerned. They claim that every carpet under which a certain kind of patent carpet paper has been placed has suffered, while those spread over old newspapers, straw or burlap have escaped. This theory will yet have to be further tested before it is proved, but it is worth something to have even a theory to work on in the effort to head off these pests.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the chlegm or mucous; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

The Percy Creek Company.

An adjourned meeting of the Percy Creek Gold Mining Company was held yesterday, at which it was decided to issue $75,000 more capital stock. Confidence in the success of the company was expressed by those present at the meeting and a large number of the new shares were taken up.

A Vacant Position.

The position occupied by the late Richard Hunter on the customs service has been filled since his illness by Mr. H. E. Beckwith in an able manner. Mr. Beckwith being well versed in the work to be done, is spoken of as a probable successor to Mr. Hunter, and his friends would like very much to see him obtain it.

Wanted for Forgery.

The Nanaimo authorities have advised the police of this city to arrest a man whose name is not divulged, for alleged forgery. Whether he is in this city or not is not known to us, but it is given out that he was formerly a purser on a steamship plying to this city. The amount of the forgery or particulars are kept secret.

Trounce Avenue.

The thoroughfare known as Trounce Avenue has been in a disgraceful condition for some time. This state of affairs will not exist much longer, for an order has been given to have the by-way paved from one end to the other, and from side to side, thus forming a splendid walk. It will also be closed to vehicles. The thoroughfare is much used, and the above plans are just what is required.

Heavy Claims.

Four of the land owners along Colquitz stream have sent in to the aldermanic body their claims for compensation against the city for loss of water by the dam at Beaver Lake retarding the flow. Two of the claims aggregate $30,000, but a general average is $12,00, with eleven claims to be sent in, aggregating about $132,00. They say they are determined to bring the corporation to terms.

About Signs.

When you wake up in the morning and hear it raining that's a sign of a wet day. When you wake up with a headache, that's a sign that there has been a wet night. When you see a large well stocked store, situated off the main business thoroughfare, that's a sign that their expenses are almost nothing and that you should deal there for you will surely get better and cheaper goods there than elsewhere. Such a one is Russell, McDonald & Co., 134 Douglas street, opposite the Iron Church.

Outer Wharf Extension

Since R. P. Rithet, Esq., has returned from San Francisco, he has been busily engaged on the plans, specifications and estimates for the extension of the outer wharf, which means so much for the welfare of Victoria. The undertaking has been so far advanced theoretically, that the next move will take practical shape, and that, before a short period expires, Mr Rithet will leave for San Francisco on Monday next by direct steamer on business affairs.

I.O.G.T.

A new lodge, I.O.G.T., was organized in Victoria West last night to be known as the "Victoria West" lodge. The following officers were elected: C.T. Feast of Purim.

The feast of Purim, a solemn festival among Hebrews, to which they commemorate their deliverance from the wiles and stratagems of Haman, was recorded in the book of Esther, commenced to-day. The two days of the festival occur in the Jewish almanac on the 13th and 14th of the twelfth month, which is called "Adar," but in our calendar the day corresponds March 6th. The observance of this festival has been religiously maintained by all the Hebrew race down to the present time, over 4000 years.

Wrecked up North.

Information has been received from Alaska of the wreck of the steamer Dispatch to Seymour channel, a few days ago. Capt. Pearce and the crew were saved, and they managed to get out the steamer's machinery. The Dispatch had been anchored to complete a raft of logs, when a storm struck her scattering her over the rocks and proving a total loss. She was valued at $5,000 and was originally built for the U. S. government for work at the mouth of the Columbia river. For certain reasons she was disposed of to private parties, who took her to Alaska, where she was employed at odd jobs.

How About This?

Reports of promiscuous gambling among boys having come to the ears of the police committee, an enquiry will be made to-morrow by that body into the affair. It is understood that in certain quarters boys have been allowed to gamble at games where chances were five to one against them winning, and this and be king games are particularly aimed at. In justice to Supt Sheppard it is only fair to state that he has repeatedly instructed his men to prohibit gambling, but the thing has been carried on so quietly and in such places as to make them powerless. There is no one more opposed to the vice more the Chief of Police.

SQUAD RIVALS.

The Appearance of the City of Kingston Anxiously Awaited.

The advent of the new steamer City of Kingston in these immediate waters is anxiously awaited. Present expectations place the nearest date of her first appearance here at any time within three weeks, owing to a thorough refitting at Seattle of her interior and exterior. The hour of her arrival will most likely be about six o'clock in the evening, and her departure three hours later. Until the new steamer now being built, to be named the City of Seattle, is completed, the City of Kingston will have to make a round trip daily, single-handed.

With competition there might be a reduction in freight and passenger rates, but an authority on the matter says they will remain as usual. All freight via the Northern Pacific railroad will be carried by the new steamer, and through passengers the same. The company owning the City of Kingston, has steamboat lines all over the sound, and have at last filled a gap which they have had their eye on for some time—the Victoria-Sound route.

The Kingston's patriot steamer will be entitled to reap their reward.

General Agent Chandler, of the Northern Pacific at Tacoma, is credited with saying that his road expects to handle forty thousand passengers this spring. These people are of the well-to-do class and one fifth of them at least will visit Victoria.

It is generally rumored around Port Townsend custom house that the two San Francisco reporters sent up to Puget Sound by the Examiner to try their hand at the smuggling business and who succeeded in bringing over a load of Chinese and considerable opium from Victoria, will be prosecuted by the government officials.

ANOTHER DASTARDLY DEED.

A Firebug Attempts to Fire a Feuders Street Home.

A firebug attempted to get in his deadly work again last night. The scene was the home of Mrs. Meiss on lower Pandora street, and the flames were noticed more by luck than anything else and a fire averted in the nick of time.

At the time of the occurrence, about 11 o'clock, Mrs. Meiss and family were in the sitting room chatting, all unconscious of the impending danger. A boarder at the house had come in shortly before, and feeling thirsty went to an outside pantry to obtain a drink of milk. Of stepping outside he smelt the smoke which was emanating from a fire built near the wood pile. It was only the work of a short time to extinguish the blaze, which had not gained much headway owing to the non-inflammable nature of the material used, which was old and damp sacks. For the reason that such stuff and no coal oil was used, the police are under the impression that the "bug" was not an adept at the nefarious business, but a green hand, and have a suspicion who the guilty party is. Whoever he is, he managed to climb over a big fence to gain access to the premises. The matter will be vigorously enquired into by the authorities.

SOLID PROGRESS.

New Brick Buildings to Adorn the City—Onward March.

Plans have been executed for a three-story brick building to be erected shortly on the vacant lot on Fort street opposite Philharmonic Hall. The building will have a depth of fifty feet, and on the remainder of the ground towards Kane street will be erected handsome houses on the tenement plan. There are several citizens jointly interested in the buildings.

The vacant lot on Yates street below the American Hotel will be adorned with one of the finest buildings in the city. Plans show it to be a four-story brick of architectural beauty. Messrs. Lotz and Leiser the owners, have great faith in Victoria, and fully demonstrate it by their actions. The building will be used by them for their large business. Work on the structure will be commenced in the near future and pushed with all possible dexterity.

A BY-LAW.

To enable the Corporation of the City of Victoria to raise the sum of $35,000 to complete the North-Eastern addition to the City Hall.

WHEREAS, the necessary sum of money to complete the additions to the City Hall is provided for out of the general revenue, and whereas but little of the present year's revenue is available for at out improvements, it is considered desirable to borrow on the credit of the Corporation of the City of Victoria, the sum of $35,000 for above purpose so that at least $80,000 more than the present estimate can be expended on the streets and bridges of the said city.

AND WHEREAS: for the purpose aforesaid it is intended to raise by way of loan, upon the credit of the said city, the sum of $35,000.

And whereas, it will require the sum of $2,485.67 to be raised annually by special rate for the payment of said debt and the interest as hereinafter mentioned:

And whereas, as the amount of the whole rateable property of the said corporation of the City of Victoria, according to the last revised assessment roll, being for the year 1889, was $8,948,903 irrespective of any future increase of the rateable property of the municipality, and of any income in the nature of tolls, interest or dividends from the work, and also irrespective of any income from the temporary investments of the sinking fund or any part thereof.

And whereas, for paying the interest and creating an equal yearly sinking fund for paying the said principal sum of $35,000 and interest as hereinafter mentioned, it will require an equal annual special rate of 1-95th of one per cent. on the dollar.

And whereas, it is intended to reduce the general rate so that the said special rate shall not increase the total rate of taxation.

Therefore, be it enacted by the Mayor and Aldermen of the Corporation of the City of Victoria:

1. That it shall be lawful for the mayor of the said city to raise by way of loan from any person or persons, body or bodies, corporate, who may be willing to advance the same upon the credit of the debentures hereinafter mentioned, a sum of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of $35,000, and cause the same to be paid to the treasurer of the said corporation for the purpose and with the object hereinbefore recited.

2. That it shall be lawful for the said mayor to issue any number of debentures to be made for such sums of money as may be required, for not less than $1000 each, and that the said debentures shall be sealed with the seal of the said corporation of the City of Victoria and be signed by the Mayor.

3. That the said debentures shall be made payable in 20 years from the day hereinafter mentioned for this by-law to take effect, at the office of the treasurer of the said city of Victoria and shall have attached to them coupons for the payment of the interest.

4. That the said debentures shall bear interest at and after the rate of five per cent. per annum from the date thereof, which interest shall be payable yearly at the office of the treasurer of the said corporation.

5. That the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the said debentures and the interest at the rate aforesaid to become due thereon, an equal special rate of 1-95th of one per cent. on the dollar shall in addition to all other rates be raised, levied and collected in each year upon all rateable property in the said municipality during the continuance of the said debentures or any of them.

6. That it shall be lawful for the said municipal council from time to time to purchase any of the said debentures, and such debentures shall so be expressed as to entitle the said council to redeem and purchase same on paying the amount thereof and interest due thereon to the date of such purchase to the holder or holders thereof, and all debentures so re-purchased shall be forthwith destroyed, and no re-issue of debentures shall be made in consequence of such re-purchase.

7. This by-law shall before the final passing thereof, receive the assent of the electors of the said corporation in the manner provided by the Municipal Act, 1889," and shall take effect on the 18th day of March, 1890.
